CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JULY 14, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

AL FRESCO'S GOOD RACE.

Wednesday's Washington Park card was a light one, there being only five races and in these an average field of only five horses. It looked as if the favorites, for the second day in succession, would make a clean sweep. The track was very fast as since the meeting opened there has scarcely a drop of rain fallen upon it. The start of the first race was delayed by Tulla Fonso, John Huffman's filly refusing to break. Silver Tone, off in front, was at once joined by Spirituelle. At the first sixteenth Santello, upon which horse Charley Quinn bet $1,000 straight, joined issue but in trying to get through next the rail Tommy Burns got Speirs' colt shut off, and at the turn Galathee was second to the favorite, who was galloping. Spirituelle won as she pleased, Santello beating Galathee easily for place. The others were beaten off. Col. W. E. Applegate saw the race from the bleaching boards.

To a good start, Ben Hadad led down the back stretch, Bangle second, St. Callatine close up; Our Chance beaten in the first furlong. Bangle and Ben Hadad swung into the home stretch side by side and as Clawson got in next the rail Ben Hadad closed in and Hildreth's great filly looked to be pocketed. Soon all three went to the bat and Bangle seemed certain to win at the last eighth, but Clawson managed to get through the smallest of openings and St. Callatine won, Bangle second, Ben Hadad third. The down-town bookmakers had Ben Hadad, who ran for his new owner, George Murphy, an even money chance and laid 3 to 2 against St. Callatine.

Tony Licalzi's Al Fresco, starting at 10 to 1, broke all the combination players and practically made a sweep for the books by winning with McNickle up. Charley Christy was out in front for the first mile, Forte second. Then Dunne's horse took the track, only to be beaten from the betting shed home by Al Fresco, who, always third, had taken the short road around the last bend. The Roman was outrun from post to finish four lengths separating him from Al Fresco up the backstretch. He closed somewhat in the last quarter, but died away and at the finish was beaten off.

Morte Fonse stayed up closer to the front than usual, being fourth up the back stretch. He won in a walk while Nathanson who had laid off, was second and J. H. C. third, Daisy F beaten off.

Enoch Wishard got the "staying drops" into another of his horses, and Braw Lad, who like Mary Black has been showing speed and then stopping, went to the lead at the first turn and hard ridden close to the wire beat Uarda quite handily. Timemaker—jostled—fell out of the race at the first turn. Hohenzollern, who raced Uarda up the back stretch, finished third, and Mistral II. was nowhere.

Barney Wolf, Ben Falk and R. C. Chambers, of Hot Springs, are at the Montreal meeting.

Mr. Schorr bet $100 each way on Santello with "Kid" Weller.

Frank Latterman bet $600 on Spirituelle straight and place.

"Ben Hill, Jr.," said a prominent Chicagoan, "is a clerk employed at a high price by the Board of Trade to keep a sharp look out on the bucket shops. Now I am a member of the Board of Trade and also of the Washington Park club and am free to state that somebody ought to head off this zealous Mr. Hill. Racing when properly conducted instead of injuring anybody, is a benefit to any large city. We are not supposed in a cosmopolitan community to be guided by a policy perfectly commendable to the town council of Podunk. I believe morality to be largely a question of geography."

Matt. Hogan looks more like Commodore Dewey than any man in Chicago.

Sam Meyer is over from St. Louis.

"Senator," a colored man who years ago was a swipe for Jack Splan, showed up from the south, it being his first appearance here this season.

Henry Simons got in from Latonia. He had the misfortune to have his filly, Louisville Belle, injured recently. The crack of his stable is an untried two-year-old that may be seen at Hawthorne or Harlem.

William Shakel and "Black Bill" Fitzgerald were out.

George Landerberger, a prominent trotting horse man of Louisville, Ky., was present.

J. H. Barnes, a druggist of Liberty, Mo., who owns the horse Dave Waldo arrived to see what was up. "I am as green as a gourd in the race-horse business," said he. "My game is mixing pills. Still I think it hardly fair for racing officials to make a mark out of a one horse racing stable. I bought Dave Waldo when he was a suckling, also bought his mammy, Helianthus, (we lost her about a year ago), and other horses of Bell & Timberlake when these, my townsmen, sold out. From what I hear Dave Waldo had not been at his best for some days before the race for which he was barred. I think my trainer an honest man. However, maybe the turf officials will rectify a ruling which many horsemen tell me was surely a mistake."

Ed Corrigan said in reference to the light fields: "I had rather see thirty horses in five races than more. It makes better racing."

Ed Gilman, Col. Pepper's aid de camp in the whisky business, was much pleased with the racing.

Frank Latterman caught George Rose at 15 and 3 for $50 each way on Al Fresco and bet the winnings on Morte Fonse.

William McGuigan said to George Murphy, when the latter bought Ben Hadad Tuesday: "If you intend starting tomorrow, give the horse three-quarters in 1:20 this evening." As Murphy thought of scratching, the horse stayed in the barn. McGuigan said after the race: "If he had done as I suggested I think Ben Hadad would have won."

Charley Quinn bet "Social" Smith $100 against $1,500 on Al Fresco, and the bookmaker asked: "Would you like another package?"

E. J. Lowry, the trotting horse pool seller, is now engaged at the Montana race meetings where bookmaking is barred and the public is served by "auction" and "mutual" pools. Lowry thus writes to his friend "Silver Bill Riley": "I like the country; I like the people. The first for its ruggedness, the second for their liberality and independence. To a new comer, however, the climate is execrable. I do not wonder that Charles Stiles here met his death, for the sulphur in the air chokes one and it can easily be seen how an incurable throat disease can be incurred by a pool seller. Our business is fair as we sell $15,000 auction and $25,000 French pools daily, and yet has not arrived that marvelous monthly pay day, when to the miners is distributed $700,000. When we get a crack at that, business will go humming. Do you know that here by law the minimum pay is three dollars per day? Well, such is the fact, and consequently everybody has money."

Charles Quinn is said to have won $10,000 on Braw Lad. He got on $100 at 30 and 8 with Jas. O'Leary.

Arthur McKnight, the assistant starter, who, as an outsider remarked: "Does all the work and gets only a small part of the pay," says that it is harder work to get a small field in line than one composed of many horses.

The suspension at Latonia of Willie Martin has expired and he was up on Hohenzollern.

WASHINGTON PARK FORM CHART.

CHICAGO, ILL., July 13.—Sixteenth day. Washington Park Club. Summer Meeting. Weather clear; track fast.

Time, 12 1/4, 24 1/4, 49, 1:01 1/2, 1:08.

Winner—Ch. f, by Spokane—Narka.

Post 12 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second ridden out; third and fourth driving hard. Spirituelle was at her best and played with her field. She is a grand filly. Santello seems to have gone back. He loafed the first part of it and Burns was hard at work on him all the way. He did not have his usual burst of speed at the end. Galathee ran a good race. He was much used racing with Spirituelle and tired in the closing drive. He had some bad luck in the race, too. Approval, slow to begin, finished strong. Tulla Fonso ran her race at the post. Silver Tone showed some early speed.

7121 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. 3-year-olds. Allowances. $400 added; net value to winner $360. $15 entrance; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 24 1/4, 49, 1:01 1/2, 1:13 1/2.

Winner—Ch. f, by St. Carlo—Callatine.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive by three horses. St. Callatine was lucky to win. Clawson squeezed through on the rail at the head of the stretch and drove the filly hard the last quarter. At the jockey board it looked as though Bangle would win but St. Callatine was game and came again. She is an extra game and good filly. Bangle is in good form. He had plenty of speed and is an honest and game colt with some class. Ben Hadad was evidently not fit. He had a lot of speed but stopped when the pinch came.

7122 THIRD RACE—1-4 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap. $700 added; net value to winner $580. $20 entrance; $125 to second; $75 to third.

Time, 25 1/4, 51 1/4, 1:16 1/2, 1:42, 1:55 1/2, 2:07.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Eolus—Gladiola. Off at first break to a good start. Won in a long hard drive of two; third eased at end; fourth ridden out. Al Fresco was lucky, well ridden and ran an extremely good race. Forte, with weight off and heavily played, ran an improved race. He was just beaten through the action of the nod. He needed the strong handling that Clawson gave him. Charley Christy looked dangerous on the turn, but died away at the end. He was sharply shut off in the stretch. The Roman ran a bad race. He was stiff and sore. Thorpe kicked and hunched him all the way.

7123 FOURTH RACE—1-16 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. $400 added; net value to winner $375. $15 entrance; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 25 1/4, 50 1/4, 1:15 1/2, 1:41, 1:47.

Winner—Ch. h, 6, by Fonso—Flyer.

Off at first break to a good start. Won easily, after a little shaking up on the turn. It was a hard drive for the place. Morte Fonse is good. He was much the best and could have gone to the front at the half mile pole had Thorpe chose. Nathanson was well ridden. Barrett did not pump him out early and came with a rush at the end. In most of his other races Nathanson has been ridden in front. J. H. C. took the long route. He made a strong bid in the stretch, but was not good enough to win. Alvarado II died in front. He ran a good race as far as he went and will do to watch. Daisy F was killed off racing with Alvarado II.

7124 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances. Purse $400; value to winner $360. $10 entrance; $75 to second and $25 to third.

Time, 24 1/4, 49, 1:01 1/2, 1:14 1/2, 1:39 1/2.

Winner—Br. c, 4, by Eolus—Brown Beauty.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second driving. Braw Lad was a good horse. He had a world of speed. His sudden awakening shocked form players. He was heavily played by a wise contingent. The judges had the horse examined after the race. He was passed. The excuse offered for Braw Lad's elasticity was sulkiness. Uarda ran her race. The pace was a trifle too warm for her. Hohenzollern was tiring fast at the end. Timemaker ran a bad race. He was whipped from the post and hustled all the way. He tried to run out at the head of the stretch.

Scratched—Meddler, 109.

Overweights—Mistral II, 4 pounds.

Some parties asserting that Ben Hadad slipped his bridle, J. W. Kelsey said that he did not notice any such mishap.

"Kid" Weller was badly crippled on the first race as the horses ran one, two, three, by the betting.

George W. Poole thinks that he will not start Boanerges for the Great Western Handicap on Saturday.

It is said that instead of being interfered with Timemaker "ran out" on the first turn.

THE HARLEM STAKES.

Attention is called to the thirteen stakes of the Harlem Jockey Club which close next Monday, July 18. They are liberal in their terms and, providing as they do for all classes and ages of horses, should attract extensive entry lists. Owners have but few more days in which to consider these rich offerings and should not delay about sending in their entries to Secretary Nathanson.

Winner—Ch. h, 6, by The Bard—Rosewood.
Start good. Won driving. Doggett liked the going. Ben Ronald was probably unfit. He is a horse that requires much racing. Atlantus came strong in the last quarter. Songster tired badly after the first half. Vagenta belongs among the cheap ones, but likes mud.
Scratched—Ella Daly, 99.

*Coupled in betting.
Winner—B. g, by Kinglike—Pouch.
Start straggling. Won easily. Mail Bag was easily the best today. He was fit and lucky. Subject cl. sed gamely after appearing to be beaten. Sky Scrapper was short and quit badly at the end. Leando was green and badly handled. Meddlesome had no chance with the ride but is probably of little account. Improvident is a fine looker and was closing at the end. Coquina has a private reputation for speed but wants a fast track. Fast Black and Cosmopolitan are both fine lookers but green and only about half fit. Ben Lodi is of small account.
Scratched—Task Master, 112; The Burlington Route, 112; Deceptive, 107; Prince of Wales, 107; Judge Magee, 107; St. Sophia, 104; Country Dance, 104.

Winner—Ch. f, by Sir Modred—Sweetbriar.
Start good. Won easily. Briar Sweet only galloped. She is a wonder anywhere. Tabouret appears stale and this hard race may hurt her. Calculation ran her race. She is of little good except in mud. Pink Chambray is of no account. Fenetta appeared unable to run in the going today. She wants a longer race.
Scratched—Octave, 106; Fleet Gold, 106.
Overweights—Fenetta, 1 pound.

Winner—B. g, 3, by Sensation—Happy Day.
Start good. Won easily. Sensational was a wonder today in the going. Combined mud with light weight suited him. He is good. Caldron ran a splendid race and is very good. Nosey finished strong and liked the going. Is very good but favors light weight. Jefferson was out-classed but had no chance with his jockey. Is good for him. Rondo appeared to dislike the sloppy track. He probably sulked and was easily outrun.

Winner—B. c, by Himyar—Grace Lee.
Start good. Won handily. Hilee was best. He liked the going and was lucky and well handled. Diminutive closed fast, but swerved. Kirkwood got a bad ride. He dislikes mud, but can easily beat this kind at the distance on a fast track. Lepida stopped badly and is a very common looker. Brahmin is of no account so far.
Scratched—General Mart Gary, 107; Russell Walden, 102.

Start good. Won driving. King T liked the track. The slow pace the first part helped him. He was nursed the first part. Merlin was probably the best. He showed a liking for the going and is very good. Ein likes the going but has no class and could not concede the weight. Taranto wants a fast track. Is not of much account anyway.
Scratched—Inspection, 85.
